Executive summary. Valcan Solar is running 2 active ads on Meta for the MEGA UTSAV bumper-draw campaign - one since 7 October 2026 pointing at valcansolar.com, one since 15 October 2026 pointing at a Facebook lead form. The offer (free solar system as first prize, EV bikes, Rs. 78,000 subsidy plus Rs. 22,000 discount, 0% EMI) runs until 24 November with the draw on 30 November. Both ads surfaced in the 'solar Secunderabad' search - their home market.

Where your ad clicks land

the funnel behind the spend

Destination type	Split - own site + Facebook lead form

Destination	valcansolar.com ('Book now') on one ad, a Facebook lead form ('Call Us') on the other
What that means	Half the spend lands on a page you own; half lands inside Facebook. Two destinations for one offer means two different experiences for the same click, and the Facebook side leaves you no pixel, no retargeting pool and nothing to test.

What I found

read live, not guessed

- ! 2 live ads running the MEGA UTSAV bumper-draw offer (free solar system as first prize, EV bikes, air fryers) until 24 November, draw 30 November - a deadline-driven push with real money behind it.
- ! One ad sends clicks to valcansolar.com, the other into a Facebook lead form. The same offer, two different funnels - and the Facebook side owns none of the data.
- ! The site's 'Our Achievements' counters all read 0 - 0K+ projects completed, 0% positive feedback, 0+ years of experience, 0% success rate. A visitor who just clicked a bumper-draw ad sees a brand-new company.
- ! The contact block's email reads marketing@vulcansolar.in - misspelled ('vulcansolar'), while the header shows info@valcansolar.com instead. Enquiries may not reach either inbox.
- ! The contact block's phone link shows +91 9010008373 while the displayed number is +91 90300 33577 - two different numbers in the same block.
- ! The site itself claims 'since 2012', ISO 9001:2008 certification and 15+ years of experience - the substance is there, it just never reaches the paid visitor.

Recommended next steps

what I would do first

1	Unify the two ads on one owned page Point both MEGA UTSAV ads at one landing page on valcansolar.com with the offer, the prize list and the 24 November deadline on it - so the spend builds one measurable funnel.
2	Fill in the achievement counters 0+ years of experience and 0K+ projects read as a startup. Real numbers on a deadline-driven campaign page are the difference between a click and a call.
3	Fix the contact details Correct marketing@vulcansolar.in to a working valcansolar.com address and make the phone link match the displayed number - on a draw with a hard deadline, a broken enquiry path is a lost prize entry.
4	Build the deadline into the page Offer valid to 24 Nov, draw on 30 Nov - a countdown and a 'book before the draw' CTA turn urgency into conversions.
